Contents

Introduction.................................................................................................................. 1

Chapter 1 - Theoretical Premises and Key Issues

Theoretical Premises

- Transnationalism........................................................................................................... 24
- Diaspora........................................................................................................................ 28
- Return Migration............................................................................................................. 35

Key Issues

- New National Narratives and New Understandings of "Nationals"?................................. 44
- Repositioning of the Nation-State.................................................................................. 47
- Implications for Citizenship and Belonging................................................................... 48
- Notions of Home and the Homeland Construct............................................................... 51

Conclusion............................................................................................................................. 55

Chapter 2 - Who is A Việt Kiều?.................................................................................. 58

Brief History of Overseas Vietnamese Migration................................................................... 60

Việt Kiều - What's In A Name?.......................................................................................... 64

Việt Kiều or Overseas Vietnamese? "All Việt Kiều are Overseas Vietnamese, but not all Overseas Vietnamese are Việt Kiều"

- State Classification of "Việt Kiều".................................................................................. 67
- Local Classification of "Việt Kiều".................................................................................. 69
- Việt Kiều Classification of "Việt Kiều".......................................................................... 78

Conclusion............................................................................................................................. 83

Chapter 3 - The State's Perceptions and Policies Towards Overseas Vietnamese, 1954-2010 .................................................................................................................. 86

State Policy and Portrayal of Overseas Vietnamese, 1950s–2000s....................................... 88

"You Can Come Home Again?" – The State’s Attempt to (Re)Create Home, Homeland and Belonging in Vietnam

- "Glow of Fraternity": The State’s Rehabilitation and Reconfiguration of Việt Kiều .................. 98
- "Home" as the Nation, the Nation as the "Family-Writ-Large"................................................. 101
Legislative Measures to Facilitate Return and Belonging

“The door’s been opened, but only a crack” – Limitations in State Policies towards Overseas Vietnamese

Ambivalent Aspects of State Discourse on Returning Việt Kiều

Ambiguities in Vietnam’s Nationality Law

Exploitative Dimensions of the State’s "Homeland" Construct

Conclusion

Chapter 4 - The "Lost Generation" - Return of the Second Generation Việt Kiều

Return of the "Lost Generation"

Motivations for Returning

"Not knowing who we are; not belonging anywhere"

Search for Roots and Identity...Making Sense of the Past

Existential Factors: The Quest for Adventure and the Search for "Meaning"

Economic Opportunities – Vietnam, the New El Dorado?

Quality of Life Factors

Conclusion

Chapter 5 - Grappling with the "New" Vietnam, Grappling with Being "Việt Kiều" in Vietnam

"Sài Gòn is the New Cali, Cali is the Old Sài Gòn"

On Not "Passing" as being Vietnamese (enough) in Vietnam

Relations with Local Family

Personal Place and Privacy

The problem with money

Work Life – Career Prospects and Relations with Local Staff

Reassessing the Việt Kiều Hype?

Clash of Expectations?: Different Work Ethics, Culture and Style

Racialized Experiences?: "They (still) treat white men like kings here"
Appendices
Appendix 1 - Map of Hồ Chí Minh City (Administrative Units).............. 300
Appendix 2 - Respondent Profiles.......................................................... 301
Appendix 3 - Map of Vietnamese Diaspora Communities
Throughout the World............................................................................. 305
Appendix 4 - Pictures of a house and street in An Phú's
"Gated Community".................................................................................. 306
Appendix 5 - Housing Development Project in District 7..................... 307
References................................................................................................. 308