Ideally, this process will lead to both top-down and bottom-up involvement, shared ownership and continuous joint learning. This would do justice to the normative starting-points and aims of MCD in practice: Dialogue at Work.

This thesis deals with the implementation of moral case deliberation (MCD) in healthcare practice, and specifically in a mental healthcare institution in the Netherlands.