CONTENTS

CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION ................................................................. 11

1.1 Compliance and Domestic Institutions ........................................... 14
1.2 Systemic Obligations in the WTO – GATT Article X .......................... 18
1.3 Domestic institutions: obstacles remaining 10 years after China’s accession .... 21
1.4 Main Research Questions and Method .......................................... 23

CHAPTER 2 COMPLIANCE WITH TRANSPARENCY REQUIREMENTS IN LEGISLATIVE REGIME ................................................................. 27

2.1 Introduction .............................................................................. 28
2.2 Transparency Requirement in the WTO Agreements and China’s Commitments .... 30
  2.2.1 Transparency Requirement in the WTO Agreements and its Enforcement .... 31
  2.2.1.1 Transparency Requirement and GATT Article X:1 .......................... 31
  2.2.1.2 Enforcement of GATT Article X:1 ............................................. 33
  2.2.2 China’s WTO-plus Obligations on Transparency ............................ 37
2.3 General Obstacles to Transparency in China’s Legislative Regime ............... 40
  2.3.1 Brief Introduction of Governmental Structure and Distribution of Legislative Power ......................................................................... 41
  2.3.2 Problems in Legislative Regime ................................................. 43
     2.3.2.1 Diffusion of Rulemaking Powers and Conflicting Legal Authority .. 44
     2.3.2.2 Miscellaneous Formats of Legislation ..................................... 45
2.4 Obstacles to Publication Requirement due to Existence of Informal Laws ...... 46
  2.4.1 Publications Requirements scattered across Laws and Regulations ........... 46
  2.4.2 Adoption of ‘Normative Documents’ ......................................... 47
     2.4.2.1 Questionable Legality of Normative Documents ...................... 49
     2.4.2.2 Publication Requirements for Normative Documents ............... 49
     2.4.2.3 Limited Supervision and Lack of Legal Remedy for Application of Normative Documents .............................................................. 51
2.5 Obstacles to Transparency associated with Legal Culture ....................... 52
2.6 Conclusion ............................................................................... 53
CHAPTER 3 COMPLIANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENT OF UNIFORM ADMINISTRATION OF APPLICATION OF LAWS ........................................... 55

3.1 Introduction ................................................................................. 56
3.2 Requirement of Uniform Administration in the WTO and Overview of China’s Compliance ................................................................. 57
  3.2.1 Article X:3(a) and the Interpretations ........................................... 57
  3.2.2 China’s Commitments in the Accession Protocol ......................... 61
  3.2.3 Uniform Administration in China – General Obstacles in Institutional Arrangements and Regulatory Regime ........................................... 63
    3.2.3.1 Overview of Institutional and Regulatory Framework with regard to Uniform Administration .................................................. 63
    3.2.3.2 Central Government’s Unsuccessful Efforts to Enhance Uniform Administration ............................................................. 67
3.3 Consequence of Deficiency of Uniform Administration and its Impact on Compliance with WTO Substantive Obligations ............................ 71
  3.3.1 Consequence of Deficiency of Uniform Administration – Market Fragmentation .......................................................... 71
    3.3.1.1 Historical Background ............................................................ 74
    3.3.1.2 Major Causes of Market Fragmentation .................................... 76
    3.3.1.3 Examples of Fragmenting Measures and Regional Trade Barriers ... 77
  3.3.2 Impact on Compliance with WTO Obligations .............................. 81
3.4 Conclusion .................................................................................. 84

CHAPTER 4 COMPLIANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENT OF JUDICIAL REVIEW ON ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIONS ........................................... 87

4.1 Introduction ................................................................................ 88
4.2 WTO Requirements on Judicial Review and China’s Commitments ........ 89
  4.2.1 Judicial Review Requirements in the WTO ..................................... 89
  4.2.2 China’s Commitments .................................................................. 91
  4.3.1 Basic Concept of Judicial Review in the Western Context ............... 92
  4.3.2 Evolution of Judicial Review in China ............................................ 95
    4.3.2.1 Chinese Legal Tradition and Culture – Legitimacy of Judicial Review ... 95
    4.3.2.2 Development of Regulation of Administrative Actions after 1949 .... 99
  4.3.3 Current Legislation of Judicial Review in China .............................. 103
  4.3.4 Practices under Current Legislation .............................................. 105
4.4 Obstacles to Judicial Review in China ........................................... 108
  4.4.1 General Problems existing in the Judiciary – Lack of Independence .... 108
    4.4.1.1 Governmental Organs, Status of the Party and Relationship to the People’s Courts ......................................................... 109
4.4 1.2 External Interference .................................................. 111
4.4.1.3 Internal Interference – Court’s Self-Restraint .................. 114
4.4.2 Specific Problems in Judicial Review ................................. 116
  4.4.2.1 Limited Scope of Judicial Review – Reviewability of Abstract
    Administrative Acts ...................................................... 116
  4.4.2.1.1 Ineffective Legislative Review ................................. 117
  4.4.2.1.2 Problem of Non-Reviewable Administrative Decrees .......... 119
  4.4.2.2 Case Study ....................................................... 122
  4.4.2.3 Mediation in Judicial Review? – Trends in Future Judicial Reform ... 125
4.5 Efforts to Improve Judicial Review in Foreign Trade Regime ........ 129
  4.5.1 Judicial Review for Foreign Trade-Related Administrative Actions. 130
  4.5.2 Judicial Review in Anti-Dumping Administration .................. 132
  4.5.3 Case Study – Judicial Review of Customs Valuation ............. 132
4.6 Conclusion ......................................................................... 135

CHAPTER 5 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS ENFORCEMENT IN CHINA—
CASE STUDY ........................................................................ 137

  5.1 Introduction .................................................................... 138
  5.2 TRIPS Enforcement Provisions and China’s Compliance .......... 140
    5.2.1 TRIPS Diagnosis – Ambiguous Enforcement Provisions .......... 141
    5.2.2 Panel Report on China’s IPR enforcement case .................. 145
  5.3 Overview of China’s IPR Enforcement Mechanisms ................ 152
  5.4 Transparency in Enhancing IPR Enforcement ........................ 157
  5.5 Fragmentation Problem in IPR Administrative Enforcement .... 161
    5.5.1 Problems of Administrative Enforcement Mechanism – Vertical
      Fragmentation ............................................................... 162
      5.5.1.1 Fragmented Institutional Structure .............................. 162
      5.5.1.2 Difficulties in Transferring Cases from Administrative Authorities to Criminal Authorities .................................................. 168
    5.5.2 Problem of Local Protectionism – Horizontal Fragmentation .... 171
  5.6 Limited Role of Judicial Organs in IPR Judicial Review .......... 174
    5.6.1 Lack of Independence: Enough Judicial Review for IPR Administrative Decisions? ..................................................................... 174
    5.6.2 Case study – Problems of Limited Scope of Review and Arbitrary
      Application of Law ......................................................... 177
      5.6.2.1 Limited Scope of Review – Problem of Conflicting Legal Provisions ... 177
      5.6.2.2 Arbitrary Application of Law – Difficulties in Estimating
        Compensation ............................................................... 178
  5.7 Conclusion .................................................................... 180
CHAPTER 6 CONCLUSION ................................................................. 183

BIBLIOGRAPHY ............................................................................ 189

SUMMARY ....................................................................................... 207

SAMENVATTING ........................................................................... 213

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT .................................................................... 219

LIST OF TABLES

Table 1: Structure of State Power in China ............................................. 42
Table 2: The Structure of State Power at Local / Provincial Level ............... 43
Table 3: Hierarchy of Five-tier Legal System ........................................... 43
Table 4: China’s Commitments on Uniform Administration--Comparison of Regular Requirement ........................................................................ 62
Table 5: Various Forms of Economic Integration .................................... 73
Table 6: Forms and Impact of Local Trade Barriers ................................. 78
Table 7: Statistics of Administrative Litigation/Judicial Review Cases in China (1989-2008) ................................................................................ 107
Table 8: Comparison of Scope of Judicial Review in China and Western Countries ........................................................................... 116
Table 9: Law-Making and Law-Reviewing Authorities in China ................. 118
Table 10: Competent Administrative Authorities for IPR Administrative Enforcement . . 163