Contents

Chapter 1: General introduction 7

Part 1. Background: maternal mortality and morbidity in Thyolo, Malawi

Chapter 2: A situational analysis of Health Services in Thyolo District 17

Chapter 3: Repetition of a sisterhood survey at district level in Malawi: the challenge to achieve MDG5
Jogchum Jan Beltman, Thomas van den Akker, Eva Lam, Mieke Moens, Julie Kazima, Moses Massaquoi, Jos van Roosmalen.

Chapter 4: The WHO maternal near miss approach: consequences at Malawian district level
Thomas van den Akker, Jogchum Beltman, Joey Leyten, Beatrice Mwagomba, Tarek Meguid, Jelle Stekelenburg, Jos van Roosmalen.

Part 2: Actions to reduce maternal mortality and morbidity

Chapter 5: Accelerated HIV testing for PMTCT in maternity and labour wards is vital to capture mothers at a critical point in the program at district level in Malawi

Chapter 6: Beyond maternal mortality: obstetric hemorrhage in a Malawian district
Jogchum Beltman, Thomas van den Akker, Luc van Lonkhuizen, Aniek Schmidt, Richard Chidakwani, Jos van Roosmalen.
Chapter 7: Severe acute maternal morbidity from antepartum haemorrhage in the Netherlands
Dijk PD, Beltman JJ, Zwart JJ, van Roosmalen J. Submitted.

Chapter 8: Local health workers’ perceptions of substandard care in the management of obstetric hemorrhage in rural Malawi
Jogchum Jan Beltman, Dieudonné Bwirire, Anneke Korevaar, Luc van Lonkhuijzen, Thomas van den Akker, Moses Massaquoi, Jos van Roosmalen.

Chapter 9: Why maternal health is a human right and calls for another approach
Jogchum Jan Beltman, Thomas van den Akker, Francis Kapanga, Tarek Mequid, Jos van Roosmalen.
Submitted.

Chapter 10: General discussion

Chapter 11: Summary/Samenvatting

Appendices
List of abbreviations
Acknowledgements
Curriculum vitae
List of publications
The Safe Motherhood Series