CONTENTS

1  CONSTRUCTING CORRUPTION
1.1. Introduction
1.2. Discourses of corruption
1.3. Definitions of political corruption
1.4. Towards a neo-classical approach
1.5. Sources of values
1.6. Case study selection
1.7. Existing historical work
1.8. Administrative history and the legitimization of administration

2  THE DUTCH REPUBLIC (1650-1750): POLITICAL IDEAL VERSUS ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICE
2.1. Introduction
2.2. Political developments
   2.2.1. The first stadtholderless period, 1650-1672
   2.2.2. Stadtholder William III, 1672-1702
   2.2.3. The second stadtholderless period, 1702-1747
   2.2.4. Stadtholder William IV, 1747-1751
2.3. Institutional fragmentation
   2.3.1. Introduction
   2.3.2. Local government
   2.3.3. Provincial government
   2.3.4. The Stadtholder
   2.3.5. The Generality
2.4. Power and position
2.5. A harmonious society
2.6. Moral authorities
2.7. Conclusion
3 ANDRIES HESSEL VAN DINTHER AND CORNELIS DE WITT: A CLASH OF CULTURES (1637-1672) 51

3.1. Introduction 51
3.2. The conduct of Andries Hessel van Dinther, baljuw of Beijerland 53
3.3. Cornelis de Witt’s rise 57
3.4. The accusations against Cornelis de Witt 59
3.5. Conclusion 64

4 LODEWIJK HUYGENS, DROST OF GORINCHEM, (UN)FIT TO ADMINISTER (1672-1686) 69

4.1. Administration and office in Gorinchem 69
4.2. Turmoil and legal issues 71
4.3. A legal perspective 77
4.4. A public scandal 79
4.5. “The shop floor” 81
4.6. Conclusion 85

5 REVOLT IN ROTTERDAM, THE CASE OF JACOB VAN ZUIJLEN VAN NIJEVELT (1676-1695) 89

5.1. Administration and office in Rotterdam 89
5.2. Conflict 90
5.3. Legal consequences 93
5.4. A turnabout for local administration 102
5.5. A public scandal 106
5.6. Conclusion 111

6 GERARD BURCHARD VAN RECHTEREN, GOVERNOR OF DOORNIK: A STRUGGLE FOR REHABILITATION (1719-1724) 115

6.1. Introduction 115
6.2. Increasing tensions 117
6.2.1. Resolutions of the Estates General
6.2.2. Appointment as Governor of Doornik
6.2.3. Complaints
6.2.4. An investigation
6.3. Legal consequences
6.3.1. Charges
6.3.2. Interrogations
6.3.3. Sentencing
6.4. A public scandal
6.4.1. Adolf Hendrik, Count van Rechteren
6.4.2. A plea for help
6.4.3. A conflict develops
6.4.4. An international dimension
6.4.5. A problematic execution
6.4.6. The use of moral authorities
6.4.7. The conflict continues
6.5. Conclusion

7  CORNELIS SCHREVELIUS VERSUS JOHAN VAN DEN BERGH (1722-1747)

7.1. Administration and office in Leiden
7.2. The ambitions of Johan van den Bergh in 1725
7.3. Honoured or broken promises?
7.4. For the benefit of the “common good”
7.5. Conclusion

8  CORRUPTION AND ADMINISTRATIVE VALUES IN THE DUTCH REPUBLIC (1650-1747)

REFERENCES

RECORDS