And the LORD appeared to Abraham by the oaks of Mamre.

To Abraham Our messengers brought good news.

They said, "Peace." He answered, "Peace."

Then he took curds and milk and the calf that he had prepared and set it before them. And he stood by them under the tree while they ate...

When he saw that their hands did not reach towards the meal, he found this strange and became afraid of them...

Then, when the fear left Abraham and the good news came to him, he pleaded with Us for Lot’s people, for Abraham was forbearing, tender-hearted, and devout. 'Abraham, cease your pleading:

what your Lord has ordained has come about.'

And the LORD went his way, when he had finished speaking to Abraham.

(Qur’an Hud/11:69-76)

(Genesis 18:1-8, 33)