

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	v
Chapter One: The Problem of Divine Hiddenness: Prolegomena.....	1
1.1 Introduction.....	1
1.2 What the Problem of Divine Hiddenness is Not	2
1.3 What the Problem of Divine Hiddenness Is	10
1.4 Historical Overview	21
1.5 Conclusion	37
Chapter Two: The Problem of Divine Hiddenness in Contemporary Perspective.....	38
2.1 Introduction.....	38
2.2 Literature Review Part I: Schellenberg’s 1993 Argument: Exposition, Theistic Objections, and the Relevance of my Thesis	39
2.3 Literature Review Part II: The Problems of Evil and Divine Hiddenness: Similarity, Dissimilarity, and the Relevance of My Thesis	56
2.4 Conclusion: Part I and Part II’s Literature Review Combined.....	67
Chapter Three: The Problem of Divine Hiddenness and the Aquinas/Calvin Model.....	70
3.1 Introduction.....	70
3.2 Plantinga’s Aquinas/Calvin Model Explained	72
3.3 The Aquinas/Calvin Model Applied to the Hiddenness Problem	80
3.4 Objections Considered	91
3.5 Conclusion	107
Chapter Four: The Problem of Divine Hiddenness and the Effects of Sin.....	109
4.1 Introduction.....	109
4.2 The Extended Aquinas/Calvin Model’s Initial Statement: Contextual Remarks	110
4.3 The Noetic Effects of Sin Explained	112
4.4 The Affective Effects of Sin Explained	116
4.5 The Noetic and Affective Effects of Sin Applied to the Problem of Divine Hiddenness..	118
4.6 Objections Considered	131
4.7 Conclusion	146
Chapter Five: The Problem of Divine Hiddenness and the Extended Aquinas/Calvin Model	147
5.1 Introduction.....	147
5.2 The Extended Aquinas/Calvin Model Explained	148
5.3 The Extended Aquinas/Calvin Model Applied to the Problem of Divine Hiddenness.....	155
5.4 Objections Considered	173
5.5 Conclusion	190
Chapter Six: A Reformed Epistemological Defense: Products, Problems, and Prospects .	191
6.1 Introduction.....	191
6.2 This Study’s Advantages and Contributions	191
6.3 Potential Concerns or Worries for This Study	192
6.4 Future Work on the Problem of Divine Hiddenness.....	196

6.5 Future Work on Other Issues in Philosophy of Religion in Light of the Reformed Epistemological Defense	198
Summary.....	205
Bibliography	209
Curriculum Vitae	231