Acknowledgement

First of all, I would like to thank the European Commission for providing the Erasmus Mundus Joint Doctorate (EMJD) Scholarship to pursue the International Doctorate in Transdisciplinary Global Health Solutions.

I am deeply grateful to my supervisors and co-supervisor – prof. dr. Tjard de Cock Buning, prof. dr. Vincent De Brouwere, dr. Azucena Bardaji and dr. Marjolein Dieleman – for their invaluable guidance and supervision without which it would not be possible to finalize the PhD. My heartfelt appreciation also goes to prof. dr. Joske Bunders-Aelen, prof. dr. Jacqueline Broerse, prof. dr. Anne Buvé, and dr. Núria Casamitjana for their support and guidance.

I owe my deepest gratitude to the study participants, who shared their experiences and provided wonderful insights. Special thanks to all organizations and individuals, who provided their generous support in planning and conducting the study, especially dr. Jasodhara Dasgupta, dr. Kusum Mathur, dr. Renu Khanna, dr. Smita Bajpai, dr. Subha Sri B, Chiranjibi Nepal, Dipak P. Tiwari, Mahima Taparia, Pallavi Saha, Paula Das, Sandhya Y. Kanaka, Shishir Chandra, Sunanda Ganju and Sunita Singh. Special thanks also to my co-researchers Kalina, Lian, Myonne and Saskia. I also want to thank EMGO+, Nepal Health Research Council (NHRC) and SAHAYOG to provide technical and ethical approval for our study. I am also deeply grateful to Trans Global Health Project Managers and staff of the Athena Institute and the Institute of Tropical Medicine (ITM) Antwerp for their generous support.

My heartfelt appreciation goes to all colleagues and friends of Athena Institute, VU University Amsterdam, the Netherlands, Institute of Tropical Medicine (ITM) Antwerp, Belgium and ISGlobal, Barcelona Centre for International Health Research (CRESIB), Universtiy of Barcelona, Spain for their support, companionship and encouragement. Special appreciation to my friends Arjun, Arnold, Ashwini, Hartini, Janak, Jos, Lily, Mandira and Samiksha.

Last but not the least, I owe my deepest gratitude to my parents, beloved wife, sisters, relatives and friends who were always there with their love, support and warm encouragement.
